When you call, we answer

Delivering market-leading technology is extremely important to us, but perhaps more importantly, we love taking great care of our clients.

When you become a client, we connect you to one, designated client service representative. You'll work with that person, the same person, day in and day out.

Your representative is empowered to solve 100% issues you may encounter. No runaround, no "chain of command" delays, finger pointing or sighs of frustration. In fact 99% of reported issues are resolved within one business day.

At Payroll Link, we love serving clients. . . and we love great technology. And we don't believe you should have to choose.

"The customer service has been excellent. I am very impressed with their expertise and their prompt response to any issues we have. I would gladly recommend your services to any business."
